Good afternoon to you Mr. McMurray:

Perhaps you and Ms. Andrews can share the expense of obtaining a copy of the Motion from the clerks office?

As you know I am not an attorney and cannot provide you any legal advice but I sincerely fail to understand why I should be burdened with the expense of providing you a courtesy copy of a document filed in a case you are not a party to, or representing anyone in.

Could you explain why?

But the short answer to your request is no.

It was the lopsided and prejudicial wisdom of federal defendant Ron George to assign Judge Mayhew to both cases. Each matter in each case must be considered separately in each case.

Let's see Solomon either cut the baby in half or the merchant take a pound of flesh without a drop of blood.

Thanks.
